

Master of THEOLOGY

SFBC

South Florida Bible College
& Theological Seminary

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Understanding the nature of God is a continual aspiration man has been seeking to attain. While this pursuit is difficult for obtainment, qualified religious scholars are needed to help provide clarification into the truths revealed in scripture. SFBC&TS's Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree will help you further your career by having the ability to address many of the difficult issues facing our modern society from a Biblical worldview. This Th.M. degree trains you to dig deeper into theology and Christian thought by working to understand ecclesiology and eschatology. This theology degree encourages cultivating your personal relationship with God for serving your community or target outreach best.

With this flexible & affordable, on campus or 100% online degree format, you will take part in an intense study of theology which is an excellent choice for pastors, educators, and full-time church members wishing to increase their knowledge base while working in the area of ministry. The Th.M. degree focuses on advanced preparation for those called to service in theological education or those planning to pursue degree programs at the doctoral level. Please note that the Master in Theology postgraduate degree requires a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (MABS) or equivalent, for admission. Applicants also should have completed a minimum of one year (6 credit hours) of Koine Greek with the ability to pursue Greek exegesis.

FORMAT + SCHEDULE

The 48-credit curriculum of the Master's in Theology program consists of 16 courses which build upon each other to achieve the program objectives. All courses are offered either on campus or fully online and run in 16 week formats. For course descriptions and breakdowns, please see the SFBC&TS Academic Catalog.
